SUMMARY

Community-focused program designer with hands-on experience building support systems, conflict resolution frameworks, and cross-functional programs from scratch. I design programs that bridge operations, community, and product - measuring success by engagement, retention, and stakeholder satisfaction. My background in coliving gives me deep empathy for host and guest dynamics.

For Airbnb: I bring deep host-guest empathy from running a coliving property — 48 community programs, conflict resolution systems, and 94% retention.
